Case No. 2:15-cv-01746-MMD-VCF

STIPULATED
HIPAA QUALIFIED
PROTECTIVE ORDER

1 In order to protect the confidentiality of protected health information obtained by the 2 parties in connection with this case, the parties hereby agree as follows:

3 A. CONFIDENTIAL MATERIAL AND INFORMATION SUBJECT TO THIS PROTECTIVE ORDER.

4 1. Any party or non-party shall be entitled to designate as “HIPAA/Confidential” (as 5 set forth below) any document or discovery response which that party or non-party considers in 6 good faith to contain patient information that is protected under federal or Nevada state law, 7 including but not limited to patient names, social security numbers, and “protected health 8 information” as defined by the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act and Health 9 Information Technology for Economic and Clinical Health Act and their implementing 10 regulations (altogether, “HIPAA”), 45 C.F.R. § 160.103.

11 B. CONDITIONS FOR RELEASE OF CONFIDENTIAL DOCUMENTS.

12 2. Any party or third-party may designate discovery responses, documents produced 13 in discovery, or deposition transcripts as confidential under this Order by stamping them as 14 “HIPAA/Confidential” on their face, by watermarking them, or by other mutually agreeable 15 means. If a party does not indicate that a particular document is confidential at the time it is 16 produced, it will be presumed not confidential, without prejudice to the party’s right to assert 17 confidentiality at a later time. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties acknowledge and agree 18 that any patient record (including, but not limited to, any clinical record or payment record) that 19 contains protected health information shall be deemed “HIPAA/Confidential” information, 20 without regard to whether such materials are stamped, watermarked, or otherwise designated.

21 3. All “HIPAA/Confidential” documents or information produced or exchanged in 22 the course of this case shall be accessed, viewed, or used by the party or parties to whom the 23 information is produced solely for the purpose of this case, including appeals. Such documents 24 and information shall not be accessed, viewed, or used by the party or parties to whom it is 25 produced for any purpose unrelated to this case, including other litigation. Without limiting the 26 foregoing, and solely by way of example, if an employee of a recipient of this information who 27 has no role to play in this case views “HIPAA/Confidential” documents or information received by the recipient pursuant to this Order, the recipient would be in violation of this Order.
28

4. The parties are prohibited from disclosing any “HIPAA/Confidential” documents or information, except as described in Paragraph 5 below.

5. Unless the Court orders otherwise, “HIPAA/Confidential” documents and information may be disclosed only to the extent necessary for purpose of this case and only to the following persons, to the extent they are playing a role relevant to this case:

- a. counsel for the respective parties to this litigation, including in-house counsel and co-counsel retained for this litigation;
- b. employees of such counsel;
- c. Plaintiffs and Defendants, as well as any officer or employee of a party to the extent reasonably deemed necessary by counsel for the prosecution or defense of this litigation provided that each such person shall execute a copy of the Certification annexed to this Order as Exhibit A (which shall be retained by counsel);<sup>1</sup>
- d. consultants or expert witnesses retained for the prosecution or defense of this litigation, provided that each such person shall execute a copy of the Certification annexed to this Order as Exhibit A (which shall be retained by counsel);
- e. non-attorney support personnel retained by a party or a party’s counsel to assist in the case, such as outside data entry, photocopying or image scanning services, computer database creation services, document production services, and the like, provided that each such person shall execute a copy of the Certification annexed to this Order as Exhibit A (which shall be retained by counsel);
- f. any authors of “HIPAA/Confidential” documents or information;
- g. the Court, Court personnel, and court reporters and court reporting services employed in connection with this case;
- h. witnesses who are referenced in the “HIPAA/Confidential” documents or information and/or who provided treatment to the patients referenced in the “HIPAA/Confidential” documents or information—provided that (1) such “HIPAA/Confidential” documents or information shall be provided to the witnesses solely for the purpose of taking such witnesses’ deposition, (2) such witnesses shall not be allowed to retain copies of any shown “HIPAA/Confidential” documents or information shown to them, and (3) each such person shall execute a copy of the Certification annexed to this Order as <sup>1</sup> To the extent disclosure of “HIPAA/Confidential” documents or information may be made to employees, officers, directors, or other representatives of a party’s direct or indirect parent corporations, then any such individual shall execute a copy of the Certification annexed to this Order as Exhibit A (which shall be retained by counsel) prior to disclosure.

1                   Exhibit A (which shall be retained by counsel); and

- 2                   i. any other person only upon order of the Court or upon stipulation of the 3                   Parties.

4                   6. Notwithstanding the foregoing, protected health information may be disclosed to 5                   the person who is the subject of the protected health information to the extent such disclosure is 6                   required by applicable law. With the exception of disclosure pursuant to ¶ 5(f)-(i) above, each 7                   person to whom the parties' counsel discloses "HIPAA/Confidential" documents or information
8                   received pursuant to this Order shall, prior to the time of disclosure, be provided with a written 9                   notice. The notice shall specify that the documents and information shall not be disclosed except 10                  as provided herein, that the documents and information are subject to this Order in the United 11                  States District Court for the District of Nevada, and that a violation of the confidentiality 12                  provisions may lead to enforcement action, including, but not limited to, any proceeding for civil 13                  contempt.

14                  7. Plaintiffs' and Defendants' counsel (including their support personnel) shall not 15                  make copies of "HIPAA/Confidential" documents or information in any form or medium 16                  (electronic or hard-copy), or provide originals to anybody, except as necessary for purposes of 17                  this litigation, including appeals. To the extent that counsel for Plaintiffs or Defendants provides 18                  access to "HIPAA/Confidential" documents or information to any individual or entity, the 19                  disclosing counsel shall be responsible for ensuring that such individuals or entities comply with 20                  this Order.

21                  8. Promptly upon the conclusion of this litigation, including appeals, all 22                  "HIPAA/Confidential" documents or information, including all copies, notes, or other 23                  transcriptions made therefrom, in any form or medium (including both electronic and hard-copy), 24                  shall be securely destroyed by the recipient or securely returned by the recipient to the producing 25                  party. Such destruction shall conform to all relevant regulatory and generally accepted industry 26                  standards and shall be completed at the cost of the recipient. This paragraph obligates the parties 27                  only as to "HIPAA/Confidential" documents and information in their respective possession, 28

1 custody, or control.

2 9. All documents containing “HIPAA/Confidential” information that has not been 3 de-identified to the standards set forth in HIPAA at 45 C.F.R. § 164.514(a)-(c) and that are filed 4 with the Court shall be filed with a request to seal documents in accordance with District of 5 Nevada Local Rule 10-5. Upon failure of the filing party to file documents containing such 6 information under seal in accordance with Local Rule 10-5, any party may request that the Court 7 place the document under seal.

8 10. Nothing in this Order is intended to prevent authorized government officials, from 9 having access to “HIPAA/Confidential” documents to which they would have access in the 10 normal course of their official duties, to the extent such access is permissible under applicable 11 law.

12 11. A party may designate as “HIPAA/Confidential” documents or discovery 13 materials produced by a non-party by providing written notice to all parties of the relevant 14 document numbers or other identification within thirty (30) days after receiving such documents 15 or discovery materials. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties acknowledge and agree that 16 any patient record (including, but not limited to, any clinical record or payment record) that 17 contains protected health information shall be deemed “HIPAA/Confidential” information,
18 without regard to whether such materials are stamped, watermarked, or otherwise designated.

19 12. If a party contends that any document or information is not entitled to confidential 20 treatment, such party may at any time give written notice to the party or non-party who 21 designated the material. The party or non-party who designated the material shall have twenty-22 five (25) days from the receipt of such written notice to apply to the Court for an order
23 designating the material as “HIPAA/Confidential.”

24 13. Each party shall implement and maintain reasonable and appropriate 25 administrative, physical, and technical safeguards to enable compliance with this Order. Such 26 safeguards shall include, but not be limited to, access controls, audit trails, firewalls, and 27 encryption of protected health information in transit and at rest. Each party shall maintain 28

1 written policies and procedures governing the implementation of these safeguards. Each party 2 receiving “HIPAA/Confidential” documents or information pursuant to this Order shall have 3 conducted commercially reasonable privacy and data security audits and penetration tests at 4 reasonable intervals on all relevant information technology systems (and have addressed all 5 material privacy or data security issues raised in any such audits or penetration tests).

6 14. Each party shall comply with all applicable laws with regard to maintaining the 7 privacy and security of “HIPAA/Confidential” documents and information and notifying affected 8 individuals of any breaches of such information.

9 15. This Order shall be binding on the parties as of the date it is signed by the parties.
10 The provisions of this Order shall remain in full force and effect until further order of this Court.

11 16. Even after the final disposition of this case (including appeals), a party or any 12 other person with standing concerning the subject matter (including without limitation any 13 individual who is the subject of “HIPAA/Confidential Information” or their personal 14 representative) may file a motion to seek leave to reopen the case for the limited purpose of 15 enforcing or modifying the provisions of this Order. The Parties agree that in the event of a 16 breach of this Order, damages will likely be an insufficient remedy and that in the event of a 17 breach or an anticipated breach of this Order, a court may enter an injunction to remedy the 18 breach or anticipated breach of this Order. The parties agree that any such dispute related to or 19 arising out of this Order shall be under the exclusive jurisdiction of the United States federal 20 courts and governed by the laws of the United States. The parties agree that before 21 “HIPAA/Confidential” documents or information may be disclosed to employees, officers, 22 directors, or other representatives of a party’s direct or indirect parent, the party disclosing the 23 information will obtain from the parent an agreement that the parent entity itself agrees that any 24 dispute arising out of this Order shall be under the exclusive jurisdiction of the United States 25 federal courts and governed by the laws of the United States. This will be accomplished in the 26 following manner:
27
28

- a. At least thirty (30) days before a party discloses any “HIPAA/Confidential” documents or information to the employees, officers, directors, or other representatives of a party’s direct or indirect parent, the party disclosing the information shall notify the other party of its intent to so disclose the “HIPAA/Confidential” information or documents to the employees, officers, directors, or other representatives of a party’s direct or indirect parent;
- b. At least ten (10) days before a party discloses any “HIPAA/Confidential” documents or information to the employees, officers, directors, or other representatives of a party’s direct or indirect parent, the parent entity or indirect parent entity receiving the “HIPAA/Confidential” information must agree to be subject to the Terms of this Order by executing Exhibit A to this Order, a copy of which must be given to the other party at least ten (10) days before the party discloses any “HIPAA/Confidential” documents or information;
- c. After receiving notice of a party’s intent to disclose any “HIPAA/Confidential” documents or information to the employees, officers, directors, or other representatives of a party’s direct or indirect parent as described in paragraph 16(a), the other party may object to this disclosure by filing a motion in a United States federal court seeking an injunction preventing the disclosure;
- d. If a party fails to provide the parent or indirect parent’s consent to this Order as described in paragraph 16(b), the other party may object to this disclosure by filing a motion in a United States federal court seeking damages and/or an injunction preventing the disclosure;
- e. The parties agree that one purpose of this paragraph is to ensure that before any foreign nonparty entities are provided “HIPAA/Confidential” documents, such foreign nonparty entities have agreed that the jurisdiction and laws of the United States apply in handling “HIPAA/Confidential” information.

17. Any party receiving “HIPAA/Confidential” information pursuant to this Order shall indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the party disclosing “HIPAA/Confidential” information against all claims, demands, suits, liabilities, costs, expenses (including attorneys’ fees, breach notification costs, breach investigation costs, and breach remediation costs), damages, and losses suffered or incurred by the disclosing party arising out of (i) the receiving party’s breach of this Order or (ii) the receiving party’s violation of any applicable privacy, information security, or breach notification law with respect to the “HIPAA/Confidential” information. The party receiving “HIPAA/Confidential” information shall bear its own costs in the event that the privacy, security, or confidentiality of any “HIPAA/Confidential” information

1 it received from another party pursuant to this Order is breached. For purposes of this paragraph, 2 “receiving party” shall be deemed to include the receiving party and its agents, employees, 3 contractors, representatives, and officers.

4 C. HANDLING OF CONFIDENTIAL DOCUMENTS AT TRIAL.

5 18. To the extent any party seeks to use documents containing any 6 “HIPAA/Confidential” information as exhibits at trial, the parties shall redact the documents to 7 contain the minimum amount of protected health information needed to achieve the intended 8 purpose and shall meet and confer in an attempt to obtain agreement regarding the handling of 9 such materials during trial, and either party may petition the Court for a resolution of this matter 10 pursuant to the scheduling order or any other Court order then in effect. Neither party shall be 11 permitted to use documents containing “HIPAA/Confidential” information as exhibits at trial if 12 versions of such documents that have been redacted to the extent that would satisfy the de-13 identification standard set forth in 45 C.F.R. § 164.514(a)-(c) would reasonably suffice for the 14 intended purpose.

EXHIBIT A*CERTIFICATION

I hereby certify my understanding that HIPAA/Confidential information is being provided to me pursuant to the terms and restrictions of the Stipulated HIPAA Qualified Protective Order dated _____, 2021 in My Left Foot Children's Therapy, LLC et al v. Certain Underwriter's at Lloyd's London Subscribing to Policy No. 6032, United States District Court Case No. 2:15-cv-01746. I have been given a copy of the Order and have read it. I agree to be bound by the Order. I will not reveal the HIPAA/Confidential information to anyone, except as allowed by the Order. I will maintain all such HIPAA/Confidential information – including copies, notes, or other transcriptions made therefrom – in a secure manner to prevent unauthorized access to it or unauthorized disclosure. I will not use the HIPAA/Confidential information for any purpose unrelated to the purpose for which it was provided to me. No later than thirty (30) days after the conclusion of this action, I will securely return the HIPAA/Confidential information – including copies, notes or other transcriptions made therefrom – to the counsel who provided me with them; or, in the alternative, I will securely destroy them, as may be directed by said counsel, retaining no electronic or hard-copy versions of the HIPAA/Confidential information in any form or medium. I hereby agree that any dispute related to or arising out of this Order shall be under the exclusive jurisdiction of the United States federal courts and governed by the laws of the United States. I hereby consent to the jurisdiction of the United States District Court for the purpose of enforcing the Order.

DATED this _____ day of _____, 2021.
